

China Market Research And Advisory

With China Outsourcing Partner (COP) global vision and local touch, our clients get most up-to-date China's macro economy policies, local government interpretation of laws. We also provide market entry advisory and assemble execution team cater to customer's specific needs.

COP's market entry service is backed by China partners located in China major cities specialized in market research and China market entry planning. With partners help, we have helped multiple US, Europe and Japanese companies successfully penetrating China market. Identifying Chinese market's special characteristics and focusing on execution, COP's service will open China's door for your business.