

Offshore Outsourcing Project Management

Dedicated Project Manager Adaptive Project Management Process

China Outsourcing Partner (COP) has a group of professional Project Managers. In COP's customer survey, Project Manager's working attitude and professionalism directly contributes to the success of an outsourcing project. By hiring industry top-notch project managers and outsourcing advisors, COP provides full lifecycle project management services to business that looking for out-of-box outsourcing solutions. Our service covers every aspect of project management. Thus, small to medium businesses are not required to have their own PM expertise.

COP also provides services to streamline client and vendor project management processes. COP has the expertise for different project management methodologies. To help vendor companies adapt to client's project management methodology allows clients keep the current project management process and saves the clients investment on PM training and process changing. COP's clients get more control by contracting COP's on-shore PM service. COP's project manager will represent our clients communicate with vendor side offshore PMs and engineers. As the result, COP's client will have better communication and make more in-time management decisions.